

My life has been so much better since being on the no-call list. Please do not let the banking commission take this 'freedom' from unwanted calls away just to benefit them. Please help us keep our right to choose who we want to ring our phone and interrupt our lives.